

One Cent a Word

Advertising in this column one cent a word each insertion. Copy may be changed every week. Cash in advance required. No advertisement taken which is less than 12 words, two lines. Special terms to advertisers using from 250 to 1,000 lines within 12 consecutive months.

HELP WANTED.

A COOK wanted at the Home for Destitute Children. References required. 46 W. 11.

FOR SALE.

LAKE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY FARMS from three to 425 acres, near city of Burlington, Vt. D. V. Goodsell, Real Estate, 14 North Union St., Burlington, Vt. Tel. 236-N. 44 W. 11.

FOR SALE—100 acres of timber, also a village place of two acres. If you are looking for a bargain visit for description. W. J. Leonard, Shrewsbury, Vt. 44 W. 11.

FOR RENT

SIX-ROOM HOUSE, suitable for two small families, with garden, bath, house, sheds to rent at 15. Convenient location. Inquire at 88 North Union St. 90 W. 11.

HORSES AND LIVESTOCK

HORSES—Fresh carload arrived Tuesday, April 28. Among this lot are several moderate priced horses, ready for any kind of work, all sizes, from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds each. I have two fast driving horses, both safe for a lady to drive. H. B. Willey, Essex, Vt. 44 W. 11.

Burlington Veterinary Hospital, 7 Pine St., Burlington, Vt. Veterinary Surgeon and Physician. Graduate of Cornell Veterinary College, 1908. Latest equipment for all animal surgery, including equine and canine operating tables. Phone 196.

FRANK S. LANOU & SON, Practical Plumbers and Steam Fitters, Next North Burlington Savings Bank, 90 St. Paul Street.

Farms For Sale

Farms of all sizes and all prices. Write us if you are looking for and amount you wish to pay down, we will send you complete description of what we have by return mail.

A. B. DAY REAL ESTATE AGENCY, Cambridge, Vt.

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

(Continued from page one.)

bonds for the local organization. The meeting was one of the largest and most interesting ones held in some time.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Bowditch was held in the Congregational Church in Weirbridge at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Louis Green, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Vernon C. Harrington of Middlebury, who read committal services at the grave. The bearers were Charles Bingham, Perry Bingham, Charles Baker, Karl Shaw and Philo Elmer. There was a large attendance and many flowers. The burial was in the family lot in the Weirbridge cemetery—Mrs. Florence Emline Parkhill, wife of Daniel S. Twitcheil, died at his late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The Rev. G. M. Moody officiated. The bearers were: Gordon McQuibby, Benjamin McQuibby, Scott Gooding, Frank Preston, George Gahlin and S. B. Ains. Burial was in the family lot in the Central cemetery—Dumas Hope is ill—Mrs. C. P. Condon has returned from New York State, where she was called by the death of a relative—Mrs. Frank W. Cady is in Burlington today—Mrs. Isaac Shackett and two children have gone to Troy, N. H., where they expect to make their home—Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs have gone to Cambridge Junction, where they will spend a few days—The Middlebury Farmers' club held a well-attended meeting in the Farns district school on Wednesday evening. Allen Beach, assistant county agent, gave an interesting garden talk, which was illustrated with slides—Mrs. Page Potter, who has been spending a few days in town, has returned to Rutland—Mrs. J. M. Sparks, who has been spending some time in New Bedford, Mass., and who for a few days has been visiting at the home of his brother, L. A. Sparks of this village, has returned to Rutland—The Methodist, Congregational and Baptist Churches, which have been holding union services during a few months, will each hold separate services for this week in their own churches—Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Brannon, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Dumas, have returned to Hartford, Conn.—Wright Caswell of the U. S. A. aviation corps at Hempstead, Long Island, is in town on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mary Caswell.

VERGENNES

The following men left Monday for service at Camp Devens: Percy E. Devins, Raymond D. Slack, Paul E. and Raymond E. Yattaw, Felix Barrett, Ernest L. Felton and John Bonomo—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Godette of Hyde Park, visited last night—Mrs. Mary and Mrs. Alexander Godette, Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Kimball have returned from Littleton, N. H., where they were called to attend the funeral of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Kelly—Miss Mary J. Phelps, who has been visiting her father, Dr. Frank C. Phelps, returned Monday to resume her duties at teacher in the high school at Pittsfield, N. H.—Wayman Bristol spoke before the Vermont Association of Teachers Monday morning on "The M. C. Work at Camp Devens." At the Sunday morning services at the Vergennes Methodist Episcopal Church 18 adults and two infants were baptized, and 30 were taken into the church. The usual conference of members were received by letter—Mr. and Mrs. James Browning, who have been spending their honeymoon with Mr. Browning's uncle, the Rev. S. H. Myers, have returned to New York, N. J., where they will reside—John W. Ryan and family visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan of Orwell, Sunday—Mrs. Lena McIntyre of Springfield, Mass., has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Yattaw, and her brother, Raymond Yattaw, who was called Monday into U. S. service at Camp Devens—F. W. Flagge spent Sunday with his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Fullerton of Burlington—Monday morning the Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. George D. Middlebury—Donald Rogers of Syracuse, N. Y., is spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers—Master Thomas Ryan visited his grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Auchman of Orwell Sunday—George P. Daniels and Bartholomew Casey have been granted a license of the state class to sell intoxicating liquors under the firm name of Daniels & Casey, and Timothy Neville and Bernice E. Nichols each have been granted a license of the fifth class—Mr. and Mrs. Felix Roehl of Burlington were guests of their cousin, the Misses Ethel and Helen Tull, Sunday—Frederick L. Fish, son of Judge and Mrs. Frank L. Fish, who is in the signal reserve corps, aviation section, at Wichita Falls, Texas, was promoted to be second lieutenant—Percy E. Devins, formerly here for the American Express company, on his way to report for service at Camp Devens, visited friends here Monday—E. A. Ross, who has been spending the summer with his son, Mr. William Ross of Jacksonville, Fla., has returned and opened his home on Greene street. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mary, who has been spending the winter in New York city and Rutland.

Mr. H. H. Daniels has sold the steamer Victor to James Cashman of Burlington. Mr. Cashman and Capt. Bullis of Isle La Motte, who will command and run the boat are here with a force of workmen to make necessary repairs. The Victor has been used by Captain Daniels to carry passengers and freight to Westport, N. Y., and with her sale the steamboat service from this city and lake ports between Fort Cassin and Westport, N. Y., will be discontinued—Miss Doris Sturtevant and Miss Marie Byington, teachers in the Vergennes schools, spent the week-end with Miss Byington's parents in Charlotte—Mrs. Harry Myers of Burlington was in town Friday, making arrangements for the shipping of her household goods to Burlington—John Lebeau, Jr., has moved his home from the Isaac Bora house to the home of his father, John Lebeau, Sr.—There has been another change in the force at the local office of the American Express company, George Chilson resigning as agent to take the position of driver, Mr. Catherine A. Daniels succeeded Mr. Chilson and George E. Sturtevant, who has been spending the week-end at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lee—George H. Bora left Monday for Fitchburg, Mass., where he will reside. Mrs. Bora will remain a few days longer before joining him—Mrs. Phoebe Langevin has returned from a visit to her brother, George Grasset, of Charlotte—Mrs. Fannie Auchman, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. David E. Ryan, has returned to Orwell—Lowell Hammond, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be out—William J. Noonan, son of Daniel Noonan of the gas defense service, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., has been promoted from first lieutenant to captain.

Miss Edna James and Miss Mary Brown gave a surprise party Monday evening at the home of the former to Miss Marion Norton in honor of the 15th anniversary of her birth. About 20 of Miss Norton's friends were present and a pleasant evening passed in playing games and with refreshments—Mrs. W. H. Norton and daughter, Kathleen, have returned from a visit to their daughter, Miss Marie Norton of Montreal—John Gamo, who spent the winter in Burlington, has returned—She was accompanied by her son, Douglas Gamo, who has been attending the University of Vermont, and who expects to spend the summer here—Charles Morgan of Bristol has taken the position of bookkeeper and clerk in the store of A. B. & C. L. Taber—Mrs. Felix Field is ill with a nervous trouble—Joseph Hamel has rented the Benton tenement house on East street and will move his family there soon—The warm weather has made it possible to begin the planting of gardens—Mrs. E. A. Collins of Burlington visited Dr. and Mrs. Frank M. Rogers of Burlington—Donaldson returned yesterday to St. Albans after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Strong—Mrs. B. L. Nichols has been appointed court reporter for this term of the Windsor county court which opens at Woodstock May 4—Miss George E. Stone is recovering from a severe attack of bronchitis—Dorchester Lodge, No. 1, A. F. and A. M., held its annual meeting Wednesday April 24, and elected officers as follows: W. M., Dr. P. M. Rogers; S. W., Guy A. Adams; J. W., W. H. Brown; R. S., W. F. Bristol; J. B. Ains; marshals, W. W. Flis; tyler, John A. Tier. At the close of the business session the third degree was worked on one candidate, Homer Chase, worthy master of Friendship Lodge Charlotte, being present and assisting in the exemplification of the work. At the close refreshments were served.

As part of the potato campaign now on the executive committee of the home demonstration department has placed a potato exhibit in the store window of the local food administration. Leaflets will be issued which have directions and recipes for using potatoes to save wheat—John A. Harrington visited his daughter, Miss Ruth, who is attending the University of Vermont, Tuesday—Walter C. Warner, who has enlisted and who has been making a week's visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cassius T.

Warner, has returned to Albany, N. Y., to await a call to service—J. A. Morgan of New York city visited George W. Ross yesterday—Mrs. Mary and family are stalling a milking machine in his dairy—Alderman John Daigneault has been confined to his home for the last few days by illness—Mrs. M. T. Bristol is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ada and family—Mrs. Bristol, of Middlebury—Miss Edith Chamberlain, who for three years has made her home at Mrs. McDevora's, has taken rooms at the home of Mrs. E. G. Norton—Miss Helen Clark has closed her second year at Middlebury College and is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark—O. H. Sherman of Burlington was in town yesterday to attend the directors' meeting of the National Bank of Vergennes—Prayer and covenant meeting will be held in the vestry of the Baptist Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every church member is earnestly requested to be present, as in addition to the usual conference there will be a number of candidates for baptism and church membership come before the meeting for acceptance.

BRISTOL

Bristol has passed its quota in the sale of Liberty bonds—The quota was $25,000 and $27,400 worth have been sold—Mrs. Cora Small returned Monday from Florida, where she spent the winter—The W. R. C. will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock Monday evening—Miss Amelia Keeler of Essex Junction was called here Monday by the illness of her nephew, Henry M. Gleason. Mr. Gleason is very ill with pneumonia—George Murray of North Stonington visited his home here Monday before going to Camp Devens Wednesday—The Federated Juniors will meet Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Church at three o'clock. The leader will be Marion Black—Topic, "Being Good for Something"—Blackboard singing—Bible reading, Joy Kilbourn; collectors, Barbara Estey and Harriet Douglas; song by the older girls; offertory, Pauline Hill. Scripture verses will be read in accordance with roll call.

The Young Woman's Missionary society will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. A. Trevillian—John Guinan of Burlington visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Guinan over Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. John Guinan, of Vermont, and Mr. Lynn, of New England, and Mr. Lynn, of New England, were at A. C. Sumner's Saturday—Miss Flora Hinman of New Haven spent the week-end with Miss Helen Weller. The delegates to the county W. C. T. U. to be held at Vergennes May 7-8 are: Mrs. B. J. Clark, Mrs. A. E. Grow, Mrs. Sophia Dumas and Mrs. Maria King—Mrs. Electa Gove of Lincoln is visiting her daughter, Miss Cynthia Gove—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Palmer, of New York, spent Sunday with Mr. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Palmer—A. E. Grow and Mrs. F. Clark were in Cornwall Sunday—Miss Dorothy Lawrence of University of Vermont spent the week-end at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. R. S. Benedict of Burlington visited relatives here over Sunday—Miss Mary E. Hunt spent the week-end in New Haven—The delegates to the University of Vermont spent the week-end at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. C. M. Bowditch—Mrs. A. E. Grow went to Burlington Saturday, remaining over Sunday—Miss Mary E. Hunt and Anne McKenzie of Middlebury were guests of Mrs. D. C. Millings Sunday, returning Monday—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Purinton of Brattleboro are in town, called here by the illness of Mr. Purinton's daughter, Miss Mary E. Hunt.

The following village officers were elected at the annual meeting held in Holley hall Tuesday night: President, Dr. W. E. Morgan; clerk, W. W. Wilson; treasurer, Dr. W. E. Morgan; trustees for three years, P. H. Palmer, re-elected for third year, collector, G. W. Farr; the wardens, G. W. Farr, E. W. Varney, C. O. Hanson; auditors, W. B. Dargatz, P. K. Wilson, A. E. Bristol; voted, T. C. Voted to pay taxes direct to the treasury, and to be added to commission, and five per cent. added if not paid in 30 days. The matter of buying an auto chemical fire engine was laid on the table. The matter of connecting the village water system with the Bristol Manufacturing Company was voted to be left to the trustees. It was voted to pay $50 to the N. H. Munsell House company—Hadley Wright of Schenectady, N. Y., is visiting his family, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wright, and his daughter, who was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer—Fifty-two dollars and 10 cents was cleared at the Red Cross dance, held in Holley hall Monday night—Harry Flint has severed his connection with N. F. Dumas & Son, and accepted a position as traveling salesman for a dry goods firm. His territory is Vermont and parts of New Hampshire—George Orvis of Essex Junction has been called here by the illness of his mother, Mrs. John Orvis. Mrs. Orvis is now in the hospital, and will be visited by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Keller, who have enlisted in the army—The Red Cross are to make surgical dressings under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Kilbourn. Mrs. Kilbourn and her assistants will use the Red Cross service, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., has been promoted from first lieutenant to captain.

WALTHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Merrill have returned to their home in Waltham after a week's visit with their son, B. S. Merrill—Mr. and Mrs. C. Ward visited their daughter, Mrs. R. H. Booth, at Grosbe Point Friday—Mrs. Carlton McNeal of Waltham is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wright—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hunt visited friends in Bristol Sunday—C. J. Sneden and family were the guests of his cousin, Ray Moulton, in Canton Sunday—Mrs. Volney and family recently visited Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wright—Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Otis and H. E. Burroughs and Mrs. Emma Whitcomb attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burroughs in Ferrisburg Monday evening.

LINCOLN

About 25 neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Colby gathered at their home Saturday evening to assist them in the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. The evening was pleasantly spent with games, and refreshments were served—There were 60 gold pieces by their guests—There was a large gathering at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon for the patriotic meeting, when a service flag was unfurled with ten stars. A presentation of the flag to the community was made by the Rev. E. J. Hanks. Remarks were made by the Rev. E. J. Hanks, secretary of the State Sunday School association, patriotic songs sung by a chorus with orchestral accompaniment and an address given by the Rev. E. J. Hanks. At the close of the service a collection was taken for the Red Cross and a liberal amount was given. Among those from Bristol to attend the meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bingham, Martin Ryder and Ralph Denio and family—Miss Mary Turner and friend of Weirbridge spent the week-end with Miss Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Norris, who have been occupying Edson Turner's farm, have gone to Charlotte to reside. C. A. Worden will move to the Turner farm—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan and children, who have been visiting in town several years, visited friends in town the last week, before going to Cavendish, where they will make their future home—Arthur Bristol is confined to the house by illness—Henry Wheeler of Marshfield has been spending a few days in town—Walter B. Burt and family of Burlington visited here Sunday—G. A. Thayer has purchased an international motor truck—Mrs. Hattie Sweet visited her husband, Ralph Sweet, at Camp Devens—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chapin, Grant and George Burt and family were in Burlington Saturday—The condition of Mrs. John Sears, who is at the Mary Fletcher hospital, is not as favorable—Mr. and Mrs. P. Chapman visited in Hinesburg Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Myron Steadman were guests the week-end of Clinton Steadman and family of Bristol—Lewis Green of Brandon is calling on friends in town—Raymond Bristol of Camden Devens accompanied by Wayland Bristol of Vergennes were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Blecknell Monday—Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy and Frank Moody and family were in Burlington Friday—The Liberty Loan has been over-subscribed in this town, double the allotment being received.

ORWELL

Mrs. H. LaFleur of Middlebury has been making some repairs on Eagle Inn. It will be opened this season as a public house. George Greenough will move into some part of the house this week—John Stevens and family have returned from Florida, where they spent the winter—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chapin were heard on Tuesday April 23 by Justice H. D. Branch and was decided in favor of Miller, the hearing being over a book account—Mrs. Amanda Warren had her house wired last week—County Agent I. N. Bartlett was in town April 23 working up a cow testing society for the coming year—Mayor H. G. Complin of Camden spoke in the town hall Saturday evening to a full house—Ernest Racette visited his home at South Indian, Ont., where he will make his home this season—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddy of Poulney were in town last week—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Charron are the parents of a daughter, born on the 18th—Ernest White's serious illness is very ill with appendicitis—Glen Phelps and family attended the funeral of Mrs. A. N. Adams—The remains of the late Charles Smith of Brandon were interred in the family lot in Main View cemetery Saturday—A car of stove coal has been delivered here the last week at $9.00 per ton in cellar—The Rev. George Cady of Boston will preach in the Congregational Church next Sunday morning—Wilbur Root has blood poisoning in one hand.

CORNWALL

Mrs. J. S. Wing while attending a Red Cross meeting at the town hall Wednesday slipped and fell upon the floor, fracturing her left hip. Dr. Dorey of Middlebury was summoned and moved her to her home and with the aid of Dr. R. S. Wing reduced the fracture—The Wing of Brandon came on Wednesday to her brother's, J. S. Wing—Mrs. M. G. Field and son, Kendall, are ill with the grip, a trained nurse is in attendance—Mrs. T. L. Lane and Mrs. M. J. Loughlin, who have been guests during the week at C. H. Lane's, left Thursday for the home in Ottawa, Canada. Mrs. C. H. Lane accompanied them for a visit—Laurence Bisset is seriously ill with pneumonia.

NORTH FERRISBURG

There was a knitting party at the home of Mrs. F. H. Palmer Wednesday afternoon for the Red Cross—A. P. Williams has returned from a visit among friends in Montpelier and Barre—Miss Alice Eno is home on a vacation—Miss Margaret Mack of Hinesburg is visiting—Mrs. E. S. The Red Cross made a shipment to Headquarters last week.

Edward Melby is ill with mumps—Miss Josephine Kingsland is having liberty—Mrs. Royce and family of Camp Devens is at home on a furlough.

PANTON

The Rev. E. A. Austin, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor, has arrived and will begin his duties next Sunday, the service beginning at the usual hour, 1:30 p. m.—The party will be held in the hall at the Wisell place, evening for the benefit of the Red Cross—The Richmond brothers of Burlington are to carry on the Allen farm this year and are moving there this week. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen, who have been staying there the past month, have moved to Vergennes, where they will stop with his brother, George, and wife for awhile—Mr. Prior of Fair Haven is visiting his sister, Mrs. S. H. Myers—Mrs. Louisa Converse, who is in a serious condition—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brothers of Bellevue Falls were over-Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stage—Fred Harris and family of Bridport were at Arthur Vanderhoof's Sunday—Mrs. F. E. Grandey is ill with a bronchial trouble.

BRIDPORT

The poverty dance held by the Red Cross on Friday evening netted $75.00—Mr. and Mrs. William Duckett, Jr., are the parents of a son, born the 26th—William Vanderhoof went to Haydenville, Massachusetts, on Wednesday for treatment—Mr. J. N. Spaulding while working at his millinery stuck one of the wires from a flower into her thumb resulting in blood poisoning—Goodspeed is at C. J. Barbour's—Guthrie is at A. L. Payne's in Cornwall while Mr. Payne is with her husband at the hospital—The many friends of C. J. Barbour are very glad to hear he is slowly improving and that he will soon be able to be out again—Miss Anna Warren is visiting O. E. Converse for a few days—Frank Allard lost a valuable cow last week—Mrs. Raymond Vanderhoof is with her husband at Camp Devens—Mrs. Clara Vanderhoof received word of the death of her husband from wounds received somewhere in France. Mrs. Ploof was formerly Miss Clorinda Roberts—Eras Vanderhoof has returned from Massachusetts where he accompanied his brother William to the sanatorium.

STARKEBORO

The Starkeboro Co-operative Creamery is now running. Mr. Beette of Ferrisburg is the buttermaker—C. Laddo has returned after five months spent in Dayton, Pa. He reports a pleasant winter, but is very glad to see Vermont and all the people again—Mrs. Irwin Harris of Rutland is visiting her uncle, Isaac Harris—There was a reception at the town hall Saturday night for Frank Silverette. He was presented with a safety razor by the lodge, I. O. O. F. of Bristol of which he was a member gave him a belt watch and the Red Cross furnished his equipment. He left Monday for Camp Devens. The other boys will work on farms until they are called to the front—The funeral of John Cockey in Burlington Sunday—The every member canvas conducted by the Baptist Church Sunday, the 29th, was a success. Light refreshments were served at the church in the evening, followed by reports from committees and a short talk by the pastor. About 80 were present—Miss Ada Merrill was home from Monkton over Sunday.

SOUTH STARKEBORO

The Rev. E. L. Meader of Burlington will come to the church next Sunday. He will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. David Pollansbee. Phone number 62-6, address Starkeboro—There will be services at the Jerusalem house next evening at eight o'clock—Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Birdsell are visiting their son, Elias Birdsell, and wife in Dallas, Texas, on their way to California. Their son, Dr. Joseph Birdsell of Philadelphia was called to the colors and left the day before they reached there—Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hallock visited their aunt, Mrs. Alice Nichols Wright, last week at the Fanny Allen hospital. She is in a very serious condition, the result of a shock—Mr. Walter Young, who purchased David Dike's farm last fall, had the misfortune to lose by fire his sugar house, two evaporators, tanks, etc., and one barrel of syrup—Mr. Gordon of Huntington is working for William Orvis on the telephone—Mrs. Russell Young is suffering with a severe cold.

ADDISON

The reception for Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Smith was a pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith and Mrs. A. Smith were in the receiving line. Several gifts were left them, in the form of money, furniture, cut glass, silver, china and linen. The people here are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Smith to our town and community—It is to be "one night" at the Grange this week—Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Clark were in Burlington, Sunday, the guest of their daughter—Ralph Elliott, who for the last two years has been the tester of the Champlain Valley Cow Testing association and gained many warm friends here, is now assistant of the State Cow Testing association with headquarters at St. Albans—Stella Cross, who is teaching in Monkton, was home Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Clark were in Burlington last week. Mr. Clark being at the hospital for treatment. Mr. Clark returned this week—The A. R. society met at the home of O. A. Smith Thursday and were entertained by Mrs. E. J. Carpenter—Gladys Torry of Vergennes was a guest Sunday of Marion Clark—Mrs. Marion Whitford of Vergennes is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hurd. Hurd has returned from Camp Devens, where he went to see his son, William—Erwin Adams and son are commencing a large barn, John LaBouef of Vergennes has the contract—Charles Benedict has been quite ill—Pearl Jackson and Mrs. Bregan were recently married.

SHOREHAM

The Dramatic company of Weirbridge will present under the auspices of the Red Cross the play, "The Crazy Idea," in Academy hall May 14, followed by dancing—Miss Bertha Shinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimball of Ferrisburg and Ernest Turrill were married at the home of the bride's parents Sunday, April 28. They are to have a home here. Mr. Turrill is a clerk in the store of P. W. Walcott—Dr. and Mrs. A. Smith were in Burlington Monday and Tuesday—Dr. Mary M. Platt is in Boston—W. J. Anderson of Mount Hermon, Mass., is here inspecting his orchard—Chauncey Brown and Herbert Newell left for Camp Devens Tuesday—The town appointment in the third Liberty Loan was $13,000, but the subscription to date is over $18,000—The Clover club has given to the Red Cross a service star on which are 23 living stars, one gold star and four return stars. It also gave $15—Miss Ina Smith has returned from Boston for the summer.

GRANVILLE

A. A. Briggs and a gang of men went to East Granville Monday to put in some State road work—Mrs. Charles Lawrence returned Sunday from a trip in the southern part of the State—Clara Severy and Nellie Crockett of Shrewsbury were in town over Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. White have returned from Connecticut and are to take their May 1.

SALISBURY

An epidemic of whooping cough in the village school threatens to break up the school, as 10 children have been placed under quarantine—Miss Grace Holden of Rutland was a week-end visitor in town—Professor Cady of Middlebury College supplied the Congregational pulpit last Sunday morning. In the evening the Rev. H. H. Jones led the singing—The Hon. F. C. Dyer has returned from North Adams, where he spent a few days. The town hall and Congregational Church are to be wired for electricity. C. A. Bump and W. B. Whitney are now to have their houses wired—John V. Thomas, the former resident, but now of Dexter, N. M., is in town for a few days closing out his interest here—Harry Brown of West Rutland was a week-end visitor in town—The Polly Anna club unfurled a community service flag in the Congregational Church Sunday, April 21, representing 22 boys from this town.

HANCOCK

Mrs. Harry Blair has her mother, Mrs. Hatch, and little sisters from New Hampshire with her for a few weeks—Herbert Church is in Hoston hospital, Montpelier, being treated for the wound he received four months ago while chopping in the woods—The Olive Branch met with Blanche Eaton last week and sewed for the Red Cross. There were 14 working members present and much work was accomplished—Joseph Gault has moved his goods and family from West Hill Granville, back into the place where he recently lived, owned by his sister, Mrs. Pisk—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Church and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Church were in Montpelier last Thursday. They left H. R. Church in Hoston hospital—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Manning were in Granville and vicinity the first of the week—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott of Warren visited Mrs. Elliott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Goodyear, the first of this week.

Caledonia County

HARDWICK

The death of Mrs. Carroll C. Dwinell occurred at her home on Kellogg street after a long illness of tuberculosis, with which she had been a patient sufferer. While it was known that she could not combat the dread malady the end came rather unexpectedly. The funeral was held at the Baptist Church at two o'clock, the Rev. C. D. Hazeltin officiating. Interment was in Fairview cemetery. The large number of friends present at the funeral and the beautiful flowers which evidenced the esteem in which the deceased was held. Ida Mason Dwinell was born in Wolcott May 9, 1885, oldest daughter of Frank and Lenora (Scriber) Mason. Her early life was passed in the town of her birth, and she later came to Hardwick with her parents, where she attended school at Hardwick Academy, from which institution she was graduated in the class of 1908. She also taught school for several years in the town of Wolcott. On July 3, 1904, she was united in marriage to Carroll C. Dwinell, and since that time had passed practically her whole life in this vicinity. She was a member of the Baptist Church, in which she took a great interest and was very active in its efforts to attend church for some time. She was an especially home-loving woman and was happiest when in her home, where she was a faithful wife and mother. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Lucia, and a son, Alvin, a brother, Harry Mason of Hyde Park, and two sisters, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. T. A. Smith, both of this place, besides a large circle of friends both here and in Wolcott. Deep sympathy is extended to the family—Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Ober of Barre are visiting in town—Miss Gladys McGuire has returned from Fitchburg, Mass., where she has been attending a business school—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mason of Hyde Park will come to the first of the week to attend the funeral of Mr. Mason's

THE W. G. REYNOLDS CO.

CURTAINS and MATERIALS

at very attractive price concessions during the remaining days of this HOUSEKEEPING SALE

(3rd floor annex)

AT 95c PAIR—Scrim Curtains with edge cut Dutch, hemmed ready to hang. Extra special, 95c

AT $1.35 PAIR—Scrim curtains with pretty edge and hemstitching, hemmed ready to hang. Priced, pair 1.35

AT $1.95 PAIR—Marquiesette, extra heavy quality with pretty edge, especially desirable for living room. Priced at, pair 1.95

AT $2.19 TO $3.45 PAIR—Fine voile and marquiesette curtains, some with plain edges, others dainty insertions and drawn work effects.

MADRAS CURTAIN SPECIAL.

AT $1.98 PAIR—Madras curtains, patterns cut Dutch style, hemmed ready to hang; 36 inch and 45 inch width. Value $3.00 pair, priced at, pair 1.98

AT 23c YARD—Madras with self figure, especially good living or dining room curtains. Priced at, yard 23c

AT 42c YARD—10 pieces extra heavy quality madras with beautiful all over patterns. Priced at, yard 42c

MADRAS FOR LIGHT WEIGHT DRAPERIES AND OVER CURTAINS.

AT 47c YARD—Sunfast madras for light weight portieres can be put in tub and laundered very easily. Priced at, yard 47c

AT 65c YARD—Two tone effects in all the wanted colors, can be used very nicely for overdrapes. Priced, special at, yard 65c

AT 75c YARD—Madras, rose, green, tan and blue, with dainty touch of extra color, 36 inches wide. Priced at, yard 75c

Couch Covers

$1.25, $1.95, $2.50 EACH—Roman stripe couch covers with fringe ends, light and dark effects, washable colors.

$1.75, $1.95—Heavy yarn couch covers, beautiful dark mixtures of blue, tan, rose, green, etc.

AT $3.00, $3.50 AND $4.00—Extra heavy quality, double twisted yarns, in various oriental patterns.

AT $6.00—Reversible tapestry couch cover, extra heavy green, brown and rose mixtures, can be used on both sides. Priced at 6.00

AT $7.50, $8.50, $10.50 TO $25.00—Tapestry and velour couch covers, including verdure chippendale and Chinese designs, 60 inches wide, 3 yards long.

Filet Net Curtains

One of the most effective curtains for the window to be had, lets in much light and keeps out prying eyes, is made with plain centers and floral borders; also dainty all over designs woven in curtains.

AT $1.50 PAIR—Plain hemmed curtains with dainty all over pattern, good quality net.

AT $1.75—Filet net with dainty edge, floral border and figured center, white and ecru.

are modestly priced during the continuance of this sale.

Fibre arm rockers, suitable for living room or piazza. Value $6.00 3.89

Three piece Windsor English birch parlor suit, upholstered in blue rep. with pillows and rolls. Value $150 110.00

English birch day bed, box spring, covered with imported cretonne. Value $90.00 74.00

Seven piece ivory enamel bed room suit, bed, dresser, chiffonier, dressing table, bench, chair and rocker. Value $200 173.00

Solid mahogany chair and rocker, upholstered seat and back with blue velour. Each $17.45. Value $22.50.

Solid mahogany Queen Ann library table, value $45.00 35.25.

Blue velour davenport, loose cushion, pillow arms, value $180.00 140.00

Solid mahogany book case,